

Preliminary Accident Reconstruction Consultation

□

A-REC consultants and engineers are ready to assist you in the early stages of a case. We can perform a preliminary accident reconstruction analysis using police reports and photographs, witness statements and other relevant material. This preliminary accident reconstruction consultation is typically a less expensive way to assess important aspects of the accident early in the investigation and litigation process.